

Environmental Policy

Version N°2 · Date April/2023

Skypro S.A. is a company specialized in End-to-End Uniform Solutions, providing Uniform Management Services including conception, development and management of textile production, footwear, leather goods and accessories.

We assume the compromise of continuously develop and implement measures that contribute for improving the environmental performance, by reducing environmental impacts of our activity and influence our shareholders.

Our Environmental Policy considers the following principles:

- Take care of our clients as main reason of success of our business;
- Promote a continuous improvement of our environmental performance by developing products and services aligned with sustainability and circular economy principles;
- Ensure an efficient use of resources promoting environment protection, namely carbon dioxide emission, water consumption, usage of renewable energy and waste production;
- Contribute for improving environmental performance of our suppliers;
- Comply with environmental regulations, with ISO 14001 requirements applicable to our Environmental Management System and with conformity obligations.
- Ensure dissemination of this Environmental Policy to all Skypro supply chain and employees;
- Improve efficiency of Environmental Management System having standard NP EN ISO 14001 as reference.

By the Board of Directors,

